Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

In order to protect the public, the post you have applied for is exempt from certain provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. So that we can perform or exercise our obligations or rights under employment law, you are therefore required to disclose all and any past or pending cautions or convictions, whether spent or otherwise unless it is either a 'protected caution' or a 'protected conviction' under the terms of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) Order 1975. All information provided about criminal cautions, convictions and offences will be kept in the strictest confidence and only used for the purpose of assessing your suitability for the post you have applied for. You may be required to provide a "Basic Disclosure" certificate from Disclosure Scotland.

Please specify below details of all and any past or pending cautions or convictions, whether spent or otherwise, except for protected cautions or convictions. If you have no past or pending cautions or convictions, please specify "None".

The Company will process the personal data that you have supplied on this application form in accordance with the terms of the privacy notice for job applicants which is included with your recruitment pack. The Company will only process your personal data where it has a lawful basis for such processing.

Declaration - I declare that the information I have given on this application form is, to the best of my knowledge, true and complete. I understand that if it is subsequently discovered any statement is false or misleading, or that I have withheld relevant information, my application may be disqualified or, if I have already been appointed, I may be dismissed.
