

WHERE EVERYTHING IS IN YOUR REACH

CULLEN

The Royal Burgh of Cullen is a must visit location. The seaside town sits in the perfect spot for coastal views and walks, has its own beautiful beach and historic golf course, and is home to it's very own famous dish, Cullen Skink.

Cullen offers a huge range of activities to keep you entertained. Start your trip with a stroll along Cullen Beach. On a clear day you can see straight across the Moray Firth and, if you're lucky, spot some of the native bottlenose dolphins. Just a few miles along the coast to the west is the village of Portknockie. Here you will find Bow Fiddle Rock, Moray's most famous natural feature and a sight that is truly something to behold.

A walk along the beach will also take you past the Old Tom Morris designed Cullen Links Golf Club.

Whilst in Cullen you cannot help but notice the impact that Thomas Telford had on the town. The amazing view through or from the top of the Cullen Viaduct provides many photo opportunities. Several cafes and restaurants in Cullen serve up the town's world-famous Cullen Skink so why not reward yourself after indulging in one of Cullen's adventures.

The Cullen Pet Cemetery is truly a hidden gem of Moray Speyside and for adventures you cannot go wrong with Cullen Sea School.

VISIT THE HISTORIC FISHING TOWN OF

BUCKIE

Come and enjoy the fourth largest town in Moray and discover one of Scotland's busiest fishing ports.

Start your day with a visit to the Buckie and District Fishing Heritage Centre. Here you'll be able to discover the unique fishing history of Buckie and the Moray Coast. Afterwards take a stroll through the Buckpool Harbour Park. Located by the seafront and alongside some old harbour walls, you'll be able to get great views across the Moray Firth.

For lunch head over to the locally owned Bijou by the Sea.

Buckie and the surrounding area has a number of great walks and is the starting point for the Fishwives Walk where you can recreate the walk that the famous Buckie Fishwives did when distributing fresh fish to the surrounding communities.
