SPEYSIDE

The picturesque landscape of the Cairngorms, mixed with the famous banks of the River Spey, make Speyside the magical place that people come from far and wide to see.

ABERLOUR

Situated in the middle of Speyside, Aberlour is a picturesque village with plenty to do and provides a fantastic

You're never far from Whisky in Aberlour, so it would seem fitting to spend your first day indulging in the fine details of this splendid drink. Start your day with a visit to Aberlour Distillery. Aberlour is also the home to one of Scotland's finest delicatessens that dates back to 1864, the wonderful Spey Larder. Finish your day with one of the finest meal experiences in Moray at The Dowans Hotel.

The beautiful Linn Falls is just a short walk away from the village. If you manage to time your trip to Aberlour just right you'll be fortunate to see The Aberlour Strathspey Highland Games.

DAY 1

DAY 2

ROTHES

Rothes is a small village with exceptional offerings. Visitors to Rothes will be greeted by an unmatched town spirit in a peaceful setting.

DAY 2

On an early morning in Rothes you'll be greeted by a familiar Speyside smell from a number of working distilleries. Glen Grant is a must visit in the town and if whisky isn't your thing then don't miss the stunning gardens. Finish a day in Rothes by enjoying a world class meal at the Station Hotel.

The town is full of history and scenic walks. Overlooking the main high street you'll find the remains of Rothes Castle. Despite the castle being reduced to just a single wall, the rest of the structure can still be traced in the grass.

BALLINDALLOCH

Ballindalloch is a small gem that packs a punch and is ideal for an adventurer who wants to discover a story.

Ballindalloch is a small village located on the River Spey known for its picturesque views, and in particular the majestic Ballindalloch Castle & Gardens. The Castle was built in 1546 and is known as 'the pearl of the North'. Spend a day at this castle, which is open to the public despite the fact it is still lived in by the Macpherson-Grant family. Finish your lavish day in Ballindalloch with a meal at the Croft Inn.

DAY 1

Ballindalloch truly offers the full Scottish experience and it's best to make the most of this on your second day in in the village. The Ballindalloch Distillery was only opened in 2011 and is one of the newest distilleries in Scotland. Nearby is Ballindalloch Golf Course, a 9-hole pay-as-you-play course. Alternatively, contact the Ballindalloch Highland Estate to arrange a fishing, shooting or deer stalking excursion.

DAY 2

TOMINTOUL

At 345 metres above sea level, Tomintoul is the highest town in the Highlands and sits within the spectacular Cairngorms National Park.

DAY 1

Get to know Tomintoul instantly with a visit to the Tomintoul and Glenlivet Discovery Centre and Museum. Learn the stories of the Excismen who hunted the illicit stillers of Moray Speyside. Tomintoul and the surrounding area is one of the best places in Scotland to discover the wonders of the night sky, with the area having been designated a Dark Sky Park. After dark its worth getting out and gazing up at the night sky as the stars pass overhead. If you're lucky in the winter, you may even have a chance to spot the spectacular aurora borealis.

The snow roads that lead you to and from Tomintoul have many delights along the way and you can spend a whole day skiing or snowboarding at The Lecht.
