11TH JANUARY BURNING OF THE CLAVIE

Why 11th January? This is the date of the Burning of the Clavie, a fire festival unique to Burghead, which greets the New Year. The significance of the 11th January dates back to the 1750's, when the Julian calendar was reformed in Britain.

Therefore, every 11th January the flaming Clavie (a barrel full of staves) is carried round the town followed by a large crowd. The final destination of the Clavie is on the Doorie Hill.

25TH JANUARY ROBBIE BURNS NIGHT

Burns night is a celebration of the life of Scotland's national bard, Robbie Burns. Celebration suppers happen worldwide on or near the poet's birthday, on the 25th of January.

Various Robert Burns events will be on in Moray Speyside from Tuesday 25th until the weekend of 29th and 30th January. Check with local venues near the date for more details.
